The PREMIER AWARD, presented by Mrs W Benford, will be awarded to the competitor aged 10 years or older who attains the highest mark in any Solo class in this Section.

The HAYESMEAD AWARD, presented by the late Mrs C Freeman, will be awarded to the competitor aged 9 years or under who attains the highest mark in any Solo class in this Section.

The ANITA DOWNEY SHIELD is awarded by the Adjudicator to the competitor who makes the most impression, regardless of marks.

For all awards, in the case of a tie, the younger competitor will receive the award.

REGULATIONS

1. No costumes or hand props permitted in Verse or Reading classes.
2. In Classes 630 through to 641s essential hand props and practice skirts are allowed, chairs & tables are provided. In Group Classes (not less than 3 performers) costumes background music and a prompter are allowed
3. Work presented in Acted Scene and Group Mime Classes must not have been presented at this Festival during the last two years by the same School.
4. If time limits are exceeded in any class, the Adjudicator will deduct marks. The time limits stated include setting-up time.
5. This Festival has entered into an agreement with the Authors' Licensing & Collecting Society. Competitors therefore do not have to seek copyright permission for any poetry, prose or solo dramatic items performed to a time limit of 10 minutes. Performers and teachers will be delighted to know that their participation means that authors will be directly reimbursed as a consequence of their works being performed at this Festival. Duologues and group dramatic activity are not covered by the above agreement, and copyright for these items should be sought by performers at the time of entry.
* Dramatic items must be announced with the title and author at the time of performance to qualify for copyright indemnity, and the performer must not change the words or gender of the character.
6. Competitors must present a copy of their piece to the Adjudicator in all spoken classes, otherwise they will only receive a report and no mark. NB. See general Regulation 9.
7. With the exception of the Reading and own Composition Classes, all classes must be performed from memory.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

- ELIGIBILITY - Except for Open classes, the competitions are for amateurs. For the purposes of this Festival, an amateur is considered to be one who does not receive more than out-of-pocket expenses for services rendered in that branch of the art in which he or she is competing. This rule does not apply to conductors or accompanists. The age of candidates for all sections is reckoned as on 1st September 2023.
- ENTRIES - Entries must be submitted with a SAE (C5 or larger if no electronic contact details are given) on the official Entry Form to the appropriate Section Secretary by the date indicated. Forms may be downloaded from the website and submitted electronically. On-line payment must include "S&D/Name" as a reference. Please add £1 to cover postage of entry details if no electronic contact details are given. Separate entry forms must be used for each Section. The Committee reserves the right to refuse entries. In some classes the number of entries may be limited by time available, in which case entries will be accepted on a first received basis. In all other cases entry fees are not refundable.
- ENTRY FEES - A code letter is shown beside each class to correspond to the following scale of entry fees:
A ... £6.00 B ... £6.50 C ... £7.00 D ... £8.00 E ... £9.00 F ... £4.50 per person
G ... £10.00 H ... £12.00 J ... £15.00 K ... £3.50 per person L ... £20.00
The maximum fee (excluding accompanist fees) to be charged to any competitor entering any number of solo Classes in a section:
£35.00 (under 18 years) £40.00 (18 years and over)
- CLASSES - May be combined when entries are small or divided when entries are large.
- TEST PIECES - Where an "Own Choice" piece is performed, the Section Secretary must be informed of the title and author on the entry form and a copy must be provided for the Adjudicator. Competitors who fail to do so will not receive a mark, but only a report. Set pieces in this syllabus may not be offered in "Own Choice" classes, nor may any piece be performed in more than one class within a Section. Competitors should not offer a piece with which they have already won a class at this Festival in a previous year. "Downloads" of works purchased over the internet should be clearly marked as such.
- TIME LIMITS - Must be strictly adhered to. Competitors exceeding these limits will be stopped and may be disqualified.
- PHOTOCOPYING - Our group licence agreement with the Copyright Licensing Agency allows performers in the Speech & Drama Section to make a copy of owned dramatic works for use by the Adjudicator. The copy is retained and destroyed by the Festival immediately after the Festival. The copy made should be no more than one complete chapter of a book or 5% of the publication, whichever is the greater.
- ADJUDICATORS - The Adjudicator's decision is final. The Committee reserves the right to appoint any other adjudicators than those advised, if considered necessary. Communication with the Adjudicator by competitors, teachers or any other interested parties prior to or during the competition is prohibited and the Committee reserves the right to disqualify a competitor for any breach of this rule.
- AWARDS - Performers will be marked or graded on their performance and Report Sheets and Certificates will be issued at the end of each class. First, second and third places will be announced and "Gold", Silvered and Bronze medals presented, provided that the number of entries and standard of performance warrant it. Certificates will be awarded as follows:-

90+	OUTSTANDING	An exceptional performance, both technically and artistically
87-89	DISTINCTION	An excellent performance technically and artistically
84-86	VERY GOOD	A convincing performance technically and artistically
81-83	MERIT	A capable performance showing some artistic appreciation and/or technical ability
78-80	GOOD	A performance showing development of technique and/or communication
75-77	FAIR	A performance limited in its communication

Trophies will be awarded provided that a minimum standard of performance has been achieved. Trophies are held for one year only. No award will be presented if there is only one entry in any class or group of classes, except at the discretion of the Adjudicator.
- VIDEOS, CAMERAS and TAPE RECORDERS - Are not permitted during any performance or adjudication.
- DATA PROTECTION & PRIVACY POLICY - Please see website. (www.kingstonperformingarts.co.uk)
- ADMISSION TO SESSIONS - Admission to all sessions, other than for competitors, will be charged at the door. Patrons are admitted free.

PRIZEWINNERS' CONCERT

Selected Prize winners in the Music and Speech & Drama Sections will be asked to perform in the Prize winners' Concert on Saturday 9th December 2023 at 7.00 pm at Emmanuel Church, Tolworth. After the concert cups, trophies and shields won in these Sections will be presented. Those won for Stage Dancing will be presented after the final session of that section.
